

Midweek at LABC

As a church we are committed to the belief that the salvation brought by Jesus draws us into fellowship with one another. This new relationship should be meaningfully felt in our lives both formally and informally. As a result we are committed to creating opportunities for folk to gather to encourage and build one another up in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Wednesday 30th November

Central prayer meeting

Wednesday 7th December

Home group week

Wednesday 14th December

Central prayer meeting

Wednesday 21st December

Carols in the car park (6:00pm-7:00pm)

Wednesday 28th December

No formal midweek meeting this week

“COME THOU LONG EXPECTED”

Christmas 2022

Sunday mornings: The coming of ...

Many people, regardless of faith, have used an advent calendar—the ones with little windows to help you count down the days until Christmas (I am sure the daily chocolate helps!) Advent simply means “coming” or “arrival. But advent is more than just a celebration of the first coming of Jesus in humility. It’s a reminder that we are waiting for His second advent. For all of us, may this season be one marked by hope, expectation, remembrance, and worship. The King has come and is coming! There is much to celebrate this Christmas time...

4th December

“The coming of Light” - TBC

11th December

“The coming of Peace” - Isaiah 9v1-7

18th December

“The coming of Joy” - Luke 2v22-40

25th December

“The coming of Love” - John 3v16

Sunday Afternoon/evenings:

As we get closer and closer to Christmas day, many different services and events are taking place. Within these times there are services very much targeting those who aren't yet believers in Jesus, as well as times for us as a church family to gather and ponder again something of the coming of the Christ who will save his people from their sins.

4th December

All-age prayer meeting (4:00pm)

11th December

Scratch nativity (4:00pm)

18th December

Communion (6:00pm)

24th December

Christmas eve service (5:00pm)

25th December

Christmas carols & reflection (6:00pm)